The luminaire also features a one of a kind canopy to complete the piece. Stamped on the surface is the unique edition number and greek text that dresses the perimeter, telling the story of the Ancient Greek god of fire.

THE TITAN PROMETHEUS. CREATOR OF HUMANITY. STOLEN FROM HEAVEN. THE SACRED FIRE. The PROMETHEUS X embraces a raw finish, lightly buffed and sealed with wax, allowing it to patinate naturally through time and the elements, whilst the suspension components are treated with a dark patina, so they may recede to showcase the cast bronze.

Finally to complete the PROMETHEUS X are the signature raw quartz crystals, increased in size to compliment the scale of the frame on which they adorn.
